DYSPEPSIA

Is a dangerous as well as distressing complaint. It neglects, it tends to impair nutrition, and deranges the tone of the system, to prepare the way for rapid decline.

Quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia in all its forms. Heartburn, Belching, Flatulence, Food, etc. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and aids the assimilation of food. Rev. J. T. Bowyer, the honored pastor of the First Reformed Church, Baltimore, Md., says: "Having used Brown's Iron Bitters for Dyspepsia and indigestion I take great pleasure in recommending it highly. Also consider it a splendid tonic and invigorant, and very strengthening."

AFRAID OF JOHN DILLON.

THE LONDON TIMES ADVISES THAT HE BE NOT BAILED.

The English Cabinet discussing the Question of British Occupation of Egypt. Moonlighters Acquitted in Cork—Other Doings in Strange Lands.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The Times says the government has struck a powerful blow at the National League's project of organized embezzlement, and in a leading article offers strong objections to admitting Mr. Dillon to bail.

A cabinet council was held in Downing street which lasted three hours. The chief business discussed was the question of British occupation of Egypt, and a circular note to the powers were approved explaining the views of the English government upon the financial and military situation of Great Britain in Egypt. The action of the Irish executive against the national league's anti-rail campaign was also approved by the cabinet.

Acquitted of "Moonlighting." CORK, Dec. 20.—Dr. Brown and three Kerry farmers were tried in the Cork assizes for "moonlighting" in Kerry and acquitted. When the verdict was brought in the crowd which filled the court room cheered the jury and the defendants. The latter, after they had been formally discharged by the court, were escorted through the streets by a tremendous crowd, whose enthusiastic cheering was almost deafening.

Experimental Boat Blown Up. PARIS, Dec. 20.—The inventors Cirven and Buisson were conducting experiments in a small steamer on the Seine, with a petroleum engine, when an explosion occurred, the steamer being blown to fragments. Buisson was horribly mutilated and expired immediately; Cirven was terribly scalded in the face and will die. The steamer has not been found and is supposed to have been drowned.

Charged With Conspiracy. DUBLIN, Dec. 20.—Mr. O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, was today served with another summons similar to that served upon him at Loughrea, charging him with conspiracy, for assisting in the "Plan of Campaign" against rack-rents. Summons will also be issued against Messrs. Dillon, W. Redmond, O'Reilly, Harris and Sheehy, charging them with a similar offense.

Only Six to Hang. SYDNEY, Dec. 20.—Of the nine youths sentenced here on November 29, for assaulting a sixteen-year-old girl, the executive has decided to commute the sentences of three to term of improvement for life. The six others will be hanged.

Rossini's Remains. ROME, Dec. 20.—The chamber of deputies yesterday voted in favor of the removal of the remains of Rossini from the cemetery of Pare la Chaise, in Paris, to the Santo Croce church, in Florence.

The War in Burma. LONDON, Dec. 20.—A dispatch from Burmah says that the Strans have mustered in great force, and occupy the passes leading to the Ruby mines. The British column has been reinforced.

Foreign Notes. The Bulgarian government has suspended its relations with Gaidan Effendi, the Turkish envoy, whose mission here was for the purpose of effecting a reconciliation between Bulgaria and Russia.

A conflict with revolvers occurred at Madrid between a band of forgers and a body of police, who were trying to arrest them. Several were wounded on both sides, but three of the forgers were arrested.

A minor state of siege has been declared in Frankfurt and Havre, and in the district of Hochst, and the Upper Tarnus, which will go into effect at once.

Queen Victoria has donated £100 to the fund for the relief of the families of the men who were drowned by the wrecking of the three life boats off Southampton, last week.

Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien, Harris and Sheehy have decided to begin legal proceedings against the Loughrea police for the recovery of the money, books and papers seized.

The chamber of deputies at Rome voted its approval of the government request for an extra grant of $500,000 for war and marine department expenses.

The Spanish government proposes to establish commercial bureaus in London, Paris, New York, Mexico and Buenos Ayres.

Cowan & Co., ship brokers and general merchants of Glasgow, have failed. Their liabilities are estimated at $500,000.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain will deliver a series of political speeches at Hawick, Edinburgh and Air, in January.

Mr. Parnell is visiting Capt. O'Shea, Nationalist member of parliament for the western division of Galway.

A boat containing a crew of nine men was swamped off Geneva and all hands were drowned.

A Murdered Woman's Will. CLEVELAND, Dec. 20.—The will of Mrs. Jane Wheeler, murdered on November 12, for which her husband is held, was probated. She wills the bulk of her property, about $75,000, to Thomas E. Shaw, at Birmingham, England, the remainder of the property is divided small portions and bequeathed to relatives and tenants. There are also several bequests to public and charitable institutions.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Dec. 20.—A saloon row occurred at Westville, a small place twelve miles south of here, yesterday afternoon, in which Thomas Concannon was shot twice by Edward Moon, manager of the place. The latter was also badly injured. Concannon will likely recover. The trouble was caused by an old feud involving suite and counter-suits of a criminal nature.

A Missing Agent Discovered. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 20.—Charles A. Bailey, agent for the Standard Oil company at Clarksville, disappeared a month ago and all efforts to trace him were fruitless. Yesterday a telegram from Corsicana, Texas, was received, stating that Mr. Bailey was there, sick and delirious. It is supposed that he was ill and that of his head when he wandered away from home.

A COAL MINE CAVE-IN.

Much Alarm Caused and Great Damage Done at Shenandoah, Pa.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Dec. 20.—Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning the people living along West Coal street, in the north-western section of this borough, were aroused by a creaking noise and swaying of the houses, resembling a series of successive shocks of earthquake.

The sensation was produced by a cave-in, which took down fully four acres of that section of the town, upon which stand upward of fifty houses. The greatest alarm prevailed from 3 o'clock until after daylight. As the surface sank the houses swayed and tottered, and the frightened people, many of them with children in their arms, ran in search of places of safety, while the men collected their most portable property and conveyed it from the doomed district. The surface settled from two to four feet, and damaged the property from $50,000 to $75,000. The cave-in was caused by the robbing of the workings of Kohinore colliery, which is located under that portion of the town.

NATURAL GAS EXPLOSION.

Disaster at the Kokomo Well—About Thirty Persons Injured.

KOKOMO, Ind., Dec. 20.—At 4 o'clock in the evening, as the workmen were withdrawing tools from well No. 2 of the Natural Gas company, from which the gas was struck in the morning, from some unknown cause the escaping gas was ignited, resulting in the serious burning of about thirty people standing around the well.

Dr. N. Moulder, mayor; J. N. Loop, representative-elect from this county; M. Bell, president of the Gas company; Henry C. Davis, treasurer; Marion Price, operator of the Wabash railway; George W. Landon, and about twenty-five others were more or less burned. The most seriously injured were Dolf Pickett, George Stewart, Milo Mandlin, Blake Ream and Operator Price, who were badly burned about the hands and face. None are thought to be fatally injured, unless internally injured from inhalation. J. Churchill & Co., contractors, lost about $800 on derrick and tools.

Knights of Labor Assesment.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—The action of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor in issuing the circulars requiring a special assessment of twenty-five cents from each member causes in many quarters expressions of disapproval. The labor organ, the Tocsin, in an editorial, says: "It would be well for the general executive board when contemplating any more schemes to first ascertain whether the money is on hand to carry them out, and if not, to canvass the financial condition of the membership before demanding of them a portion of their hard earnings in shape of an assessment. Before this assessment is paid by any one, we think there should be a correct financial statement presented to every local assembly showing where all the money goes that is turned into the general office from time to time. Many are demanding this, and there is no valid reason why their request should not be complied with."

Poverty, Pestilence and Death.

DETROIT, Dec. 20.—A horrible scene of poverty, pestilence and death has been discovered in the dilapidated frame house No. 456 Woodbridge street, in this city. The house was occupied by a stonemason named Thomas Greaves, with his wife and five children. Mrs. Greaves died last Sunday, and was buried Wednesday, her babe being carried for by the neighbors. Since then the house has been closed, and nothing was seen of Greaves or his children. Becoming suspicious that something was wrong, a neighbor this morning broke in the door and found the children on the same bed on which lay the father, who was crazy drunk. All the children were down with a virulent attack of scarlet fever. A girl three years old was dead; a boy eight years old was straggling and dying, and the other children were so ill they could not move. There was neither fire nor food in the house.

Northwest Territory Colonization Scheme.

MONTREAL, Dec. 20.—Sir John Lyster Key, the promoter of the Alberta and Assiniboia Land, Stock and Coal company, has arranged to purchase from the Canadian Pacific railroad its ten experimental farms in the northwest, and another large tract from the Dominion government, on which will be located 200 head of cattle, including polled Angus herds, brood mares, Clydesdale and thoroughbred stallions, 50,000 head of sheep, to be improved by Cheviot and Leicester rams, and a large number of pigs, to be improved with Yorkshire boars. The company contemplates establishing villages and towns, and bringing in settlers from England. They have a capital of $5,000,000. Operations will begin immediately.

That Catholic Conference.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Archbishop Corrigan has returned from Philadelphia. His secretary, Mr. McDonnell, wrote this memorandum for the information of reporters: "The meeting of archbishops in Philadelphia had nothing whatever to do with the Knights of Labor, or Dr. McGlynn. It was a purely executive meeting, and among other things, attended to matters of importance connected with the American college. The meeting consisted of members of the executive committee of the American college, namely, the cardinal archbishop of Baltimore, ex-officio, chairman; the archbishop of Philadelphia, treasurer; the archbishops of Boston and New York."

Schooner on the Rocks.

GLoucester, Mass., Dec. 20.—At 3 a. m. today, the schooner Carrie Easton, from New York, in ballast for Cornwallis, N. S., parted her cable and went ashore near a ledge at Eastern Point. At daylight the captain came ashore and telegraphed to Boston for a tug to get the vessel off. The schooner belongs in Parrsboro, N. S., is owned by the captain and others, is worth about $8,000, and insured for $4,000. It is probable that she will be gotten off without material damage.

Death of a New York Editor.

BUFFALO, Dec. 20.—Hon. James D. Warren, editor and proprietor of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, and ex-chairman of the Republican state committee, died at his residence on North street. Mr. Warren had been ill for several weeks but had been improving. He had a relapse and sank rapidly.

A REVIEW OF BUSINESS.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REPORT ON THE FEATURES OF THE WEEK.

The Week Has Been One of Unusual Excitement—Effects of the Panic in Wall Street—Very Little Depression in General Business—Features of the Week.

New York, Dec. 20.—R. G. Dun & Co. has issued the following weekly trade review: The past has been a week of unusual excitement. The sharp decline in the stock market was foreshadowed by the recent unhealthy advance in securities that do not secure, and in some of these the fall was from $30 to $37 per share. But fifteen other stocks lost over $10 per share, and the average price of active stocks, good and bad, fell $8.30 per cent, per share from December 4, to the lowest point on Wednesday last; "knocking the froth off the market," one broker called it. In that case there was a good deal of froth. Some recovery has since occurred, but it is yet too soon to determine whether bottom has been reached. It is surprising and creditable that thus far only one failure in the exchange has resulted from such a fall.

Money was artificially looked up, beyond doubt, and the decline thus increased. The rate rose from 6 to 8 per cent. on Saturday, to 10 per cent. as the lowest and 18 per cent. as the highest on Wednesday. This difficulty has been met by shipments from many interior points, Canadian banks sending $1,000,000, by the arrival of $1,400,000 on Thursday from France, and the shipment of $4,000,000 from London, and by the treasury's offer to prepay $9,000,000 interest. The advance in rate by the Bank of England is meant to check the outflow of gold, but the supply now in sight here, and the shrinkage in speculative demands, should prevent any stringency in money for commercial or industrial needs, if Europe does not unload stocks.

So far the Wall street excitement has no effect on general business. Other speculative markets were neglected, and the sales were far below previous records. Oil and grain dropped Wednesday, but recovered. Coffee broke at Havre, and was not recovered. Cotton yielded a shade, but hog products advanced. The Thomas company, which largely controls iron prices, fixed $30 as its price for No. 1 iron for 1887, and has sold 40 per cent. more in 1886 than in any other year, and engaged 111,000 tons already for next year. Important failures at several points show individual rather than general overtrading. Dry goods are less active, but the trade not unhealthy. Exchanges outside New York show that the volume of business at the north is very large, though some depression exists in part of the south. Railroads agree to advance east-bound rates five cents December 20, and have large earnings already.

But while Wall street acrobatics do not yet affect general business, continued depression might in two ways. Failure to sell securities might check railroad building and iron making. Returns of the large body of American stocks held abroad would cause heavy loss of gold and severe pressure. The weather will watch for signs in these quarters. Thus far, Europe sends gold and buys stocks.

The interstate commerce bill is thought dangerous by many investors, and its progress may cause unloading of securities. The issue of silver certificates increases, $2,000,000 more having been put out last week, while the treasury took in $1,500,000 more gold. Risks in stocks by individuals all over the country are likely to increase the number of commercial failures, already unusually large for the season. The situation, therefore, while not now disturbing, justifies caution.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number in the United States 260 and for Canada 24, a total of 284, against 274 last week and 245 the week previous. The casualties in the middle, western, southern and Pacific states are above the average in number, which is also the case in Canada. In New York City fifteen failures are reported, only two of which are of consequence.

Wreck on the Illinois Central.

FREEPORT, Ill., Dec. 20.—One of the worst wrecks ever known in this part of the country took place yesterday on the Illinois Central road, near Baileyville. A freight train that left Freeport collided with an extra freight that left this city with a double header. Three engines and twenty-one cars were demolished. The cars were loaded with coal and grain, and the scene presented was a fearful one. Engineer R. Q. Getty, of Amboy, had a leg broken in jumping, and a fireman named Maloney, also of Amboy, was slightly injured. It is estimated that the damage is over $30,000. Wrecking crews and officials reached the place as soon as possible, but it was some hours before the track was cleared.

Carnival Program.

MONTREAL, Dec. 20.—The executive committee of the Montreal winter carnival issued their preliminary program to-day. The dates fixed for the carnival are February 7 to 12, inclusive. The Toboggan slide, the Victoria skating rink and the gymnasium will be open to all visitors. There will be a grand fancy dress skating carnival, in which visitors are invited to join, subject to costume regulations. The ice castle this year will be of an entirely new design, including an area of 14,000 feet, the tower rising 100 feet. Within its walls will be an extensive exhibition of the agricultural and other products of the Dominion.

Unconscious From Coal Gas.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 20.—About midnight last night five girls, servants at the British American hotel, Windsor, Ont., were discovered in their rooms in an unconscious condition from the effects of coal gas. Doctors were hastily summoned, and succeeded in bringing four of them to consciousness before daylight. The fifth, Kittie Kane, is still in a serious condition, and will probably die.

PORT TERRELL, Tex., Dec. 20.—A destructive fire started yesterday in Postwood & Cowles' warehouse, containing in round numbers 1,250 bales of cotton, all of which, together with two adjoining frame dwellings, were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $200,000; insurance $30,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

GLAD CATTLE MEN.

No Pleuro-Pneumonia Among the Texas Herds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—A special from Dallas, Texas, to the Times, says: Dr. Paaran, United States veterinary inspector, made an official examination of the cattle disease in this locality, as directed by Dr. Salmon, chief of the bureau at Washington. Dr. Paaran was assisted by Dr. Hopkins, of Wyoming Territory, at the request of Texas cattle men. United States Agent Cunningham, of the animal industry bureau, was also present, as were a large number of cattle men. All the affected stock were subjected to critical examinations, and a cow suffering the most from the prevailing sickness, was killed and dissected.

The examination discloses no evidence of pleuro-pneumonia, and Drs. Paaran and Hopkins, and all present, were fully satisfied that no contagious disease existed or has existed among Texas cattle during the present period of alarm. The substance of their findings is that the cattle are affected with tuberculosis, with indications of chronic or subacute fever. In other words the delicate, unregistered Jerseys imported from Indiana have been attacked since coming to Texas with a sort of quick consumption. They have been well cared for and warmly housed in Indiana in severe weather, and when exposed out doors to the rigors of Texas winter northers, they have succumbed. All alarm over the sickness has abated.

The Two Tommys to Meet Again.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Tommy Warren, the feather-weight champion of the west, and Tommy Danforth, the feather-weight champion of the east, have arranged for a mill. The battle will be fought under the Marquis of Queensbury rules, within one hundred miles of this city and inside of one month from the date of signing the articles. The stakes will be $1,000 a side and a large purse of money subscribed by sports. The men with their trainers will meet at the Police Gazette office to sign articles and deposit $200 each as first money.

Street Car Employes' Grievances.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The conductors and drivers in the employ of the West Division street railroad at the regular meeting of their benevolent association will take some action looking to a remedy for the grievance of which they complain and which have been published. From such information as could be obtained from the employes there is no purpose to bring about a strike, and it is understood by them that within a few days a satisfactory time table would be arranged, and that a number of the cars put off the lines would be replaced.

Home-Rule Sympathizers.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Horticultural hall, for the purpose of protesting against eviction and coercion in Ireland. The following cablegram was sent to William O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, Dublin: "A mass meeting of citizens, the attorney general presiding, unanimously condemned the Tory policy of evictions, and subscribed $3,032.30 to the anti-eviction fund, and promised more aid to the Irish people in their public fight for fair rent and Home Rule."

The Tilden Will Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—George H. Tilden, nephew of the late S. J. Tilden, has served upon counsel for the executors his complaint against the probate of Mr. Tilden's will. The other relatives and heirs are made co-defendants to the action. The complaint is based upon the clause which leaves the bulk of the property in trust for public uses. It is averred that the trust is indefinite and therefore void.

Railroad Depot Robbed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 20.—The railroad depot at Newark, on the Batesville branch of the Iron Mountain railroad, was robbed by burglars last night. After emptying the cash drawer the thieves set fire to the building. Fortunately it was discovered in time to prevent a total loss. If the perpetrators can be discovered their trial will be very brief.

Michael Davitt's Immediate Future.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Michael Davitt will deliver his farewell lecture in this city. Early next week the distinguished Nationalist will leave for Oakland, Cal., where he will take unto himself a wife in the person of Miss May Yore. The wedding trip will be across the continent and the Atlantic to "Old Ireland."

Injured by a Gas Explosion.

LIMA, O., Dec. 20.—Richard Craig, janitor at Faurot's opera house building, struck a match and was in the act of lighting the oil burner under the boilers of the steam heaters when the gas arising from the oil ignited, and exploding, hurled Craig across the engine-room, seriously injuring and burning him.

Suicided With a Shotgun.

OLNEY, Ill., Dec. 20.—This morning at 5:30 o'clock, Miss Ella Benton, aged twenty-two, who lives on a farm with her brother and widowed mother, three miles southwest of this city, shot and killed herself with a shotgun. She was an ardent church worker. Ill health is the supposed cause.

A School Teacher Whipped.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20.—A school teacher named Sellers was severely whipped to-day with a cowhide by the father of a little eight-year-old girl, whom the teacher had whipped for a trifling offense.

Hunger Brought Them to Terms.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 20.—The tramp insurrection at the Lancaster work house is at an end, the men resuming work to-day at stone-breaking after having been deprived of food for thirty-six hours.

A Colored Man Hung.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 20.—Bob Jeter, colored, was hanged at Shartanburg yesterday. He broke down completely on the scaffold, and the scene was pitiful.

A South Carolina Law.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20.—The legislature has passed the bill to make boycotting and combinations of labor, to extort higher wages, a misdemeanor.

The Condition of Alice Oates.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—Alice Oates is still slowly sinking. Her physicians say there is no hope for her recovery.
